

d open: the first replicator (16 cells) no backward jump, so the pointer leaves the organism copies 0.68 of partners, damaged in 0.33 of encounters (medians of 20 worlds) closed with RET NZ (16 cells) its own bytes, read as return addresses, point back into itself copies 1.00, damaged 0.00 (17 worlds) closed with JR NZ (50 cells) relative jumps of 16 bytes back; dashed, the 16-bit program counter wraps to 0 copies 1.00, damaged 0.00 (6 worlds) closed with DJNZ (20 cells) a counted loop; dashed, the 16-bit program counter wraps to 0 copies 1.00, damaged 0.00 (2 worlds)

closed with LDIR (20 cells) one instruction repeats in place until the block is copied copies 1.00, damaged 0.00 (3 worlds)

